

Colorado

Immerse yourself in...

Red Rocks and you'll never be the same. Colorado is among the most scenic places in the world to take in live music, be it at the famed Red Rocks Amphitheatre in Morrison or the Telluride Bluegrass Festival, to name a few of the state's breathtaking outdoor venues nestled among the mountains. Among its most famed recording artists, John Denver wrote "Rocky Mountain High" as an ode to the state he loved, and in 2007, it was made an official state song.

Music Venues & Festivals

- |                                |                              |
|--------------------------------|------------------------------|
| 10 Mile Music Hall             | Gerald Ford Amphitheater     |
| Ball Arena                     | Lost Lake Lounge             |
| Belly Up                       | Mishawaka Amphitheatre       |
| Boulder Theatre                | Red Rocks Amphitheater       |
| Club Vinyl                     | Sonic Bloom Festival         |
| Decadence Colorado Festival    | Telluride Bluegrass Festival |
| Denver Performing Arts Complex | Wild Horse Saloon            |

Notable Musicians

- |                      |               |
|----------------------|---------------|
| Glenn Miller         | OneRepublic   |
| India Arie           | Ross Lynch    |
| Jamie Laurie/Flobots | The Fray      |
| Neutral Milk Hotel   | The Lumineers |

$2.8B
 Music Industry
 Contribution to State GDP
 (Secretariat)

50,146
 Jobs Supported
 (Secretariat)

8,221
 Music Establishments
 (A2IM/Secretariat/NIVA)

3,012
 Royalty Recipients
 (SAG-AFTRA/SoundExchange)

21,313
 Songwriters
 (ASCAP/BMI/GMR/SESAC)